ABOUT ME

Hello! My name is Aradhana Muthabatulla but I go by Chikki! My mom had a shirt that said “Be like a chick” before I was born and thought it would be funny to start calling me that when I was young. Ever since then it stuck and now all my friends call me Chikki!

I am a Sophomore in Informatics and currently play soccer for the Women’s club team here at UW. Additionally, I am a member of Kappa Delta and am a very social person! I love talking to others and building relationships and connections.

THINGS I WOULD WANT TO IMPLEMENT

- Create more outreach events for people to learn about the club, especially newly admitted members
- Create interactive events such as career oriented events for networking and support amongst our community
- Develop increased accessibility to iSchool resources for newly admitted students

EXPERIENCE

- Logistic Director at InTechual Coding
- In My Backyard Ambassador
- Congressional Award Medalist
